Apparently the miserable parody on racing at Carnegie is about ended. If the Western Union Telegraph Company persists in its reported refusal to continue its pool room service longer that will settle the alleged racing for $30 purses. It will be a good thing when the outlaw business comes to an end. The men engaged in it deserve no sympathy or consideration. They had their chance to race in a legitimate way but deliberately threw it away, and the legitimate turf is well rid of them. There are other avocations in abundance to which they should turn their attention. Honestly conducted racing has no place for them nor would they have any taste for that style of racing.

A Chillicothe dispatch of Friday to the Enquirer says: "Imp will be brought up tomorrow from the Harness farm and put into training at the fair grounds track. Her old trainer, Mr. C. E. Brossman, of Lithopolis, arrived here today to take charge of her. The mare is in excellent shape and, it is expected, will be ready for the track in five or six weeks. She will open her season at the Memphis meeting early in April, and will then be taken east, where she will probably remain the rest of the season. She is entered in the Brooklyn, Suburban and Metropolitan Handicaps. The mare will probably receive an ovation when she reaches here tomorrow."

What'er Lou not only won the Evergreen Stakes at Ingleside but in doing it he also wiped out the long standing record of the noted gray horse Gabriel at nine furlongs heats. At Sheephead Bay, Sep. 23, 1880, Gabriel reeled off two heats, at the distance in 1:56, 1:56, and that stood as the record until it was laid away by What'er Lou's fine performance Saturday.

Cromwell was entered in a race at Ingleside last Monday but he did not start. Why he did not is thus explained by the Examiner: "The judges threw out Cromwell's entry in the fifth race. They are puzzled at the difference in quality between the horse's performances at Oakland and on this side of the bay and they are going to think the matter over."

Fred Foster is reported to have bought the two-year-old colt Yellow Tail, by Watercross—Paloma, from Burns & Waterhouse, whether for himself or some other person seems to be in doubt. The purchase is not doubtful but the alleged price $10,000 is open to grave suspicion. Perhaps an extra cipher was somehow added to it in the process of transmission.

The Summer Cup, run at the Australian Jockey Club meeting at Sydney, was won by Strathroy, by Lochiel, a son of Prince Charley. The Queensland horse Merloolas, with 136 pounds in the saddle, was beaten in the last stride by a scant head. Amberite the present crack of the Australian turf pulled up lame and may be hopelessly broken down.

L. E. Myers, who was a turf operator at intervals, but of less renown in horse racing in that corner than in the sport of pedestrianism, was a victim of pneumonia at New York Thursday. Myers was a wonderful runner at the middle distances, and at one time held fourteen American, ten Canadian and three English records from 350 to 1,000 yards.

SAN FRANCISCO WINNERS.

The two weeks of racing at Ingleside increased the grand total of money so far offered by the two San Francisco clubs to $241,900. The feature of the meeting was the success of Mr. Corrigan's horses. Fortune has been none too kind to him in racing for some time past, but her favors were lavish during the past fortnight, his horses having in that time won twelve races, including one stake, the Malowan-sky. Burns & Waterhouse are still far in the lead of winning owners, while it is becoming a close thing for second place between the Cambridge Stable, Mr. Corrigan and Pat Dunne. Those with earnings of $2,500 or more to their credit are:

B'rus & Waterhouse.....	$20,090	C'mbridge Stables.....	$11,280

Quite a number of other owners are close to the $2,500 mark and in all the horses of fifty-eight different owners have earned for them $1,000 or more.

By virtue of winning the front end of two $500 purses gallant old Buckwa has gone to the head of the list of winning horses. The following are those that have won $1,500 or more:

Paschal took the longest route. Gussie Fay had speed for nearly three furlongs.

Post 3 minutes. Start good. Wou in a gallop. The next three were driving. Sensational was not fully extended. He was under a strong pull and could have won away off. Water Crest quit when challenged at the head of the stretch. Boanerges was right there all the way. Ben Royald ran a bad race. He is a bad horse. Sea Robber ran to the mark and finished gamely.

Winner—Blk. c. by Eon—Vigilene.
Off at first break to a good start. Wou easily. It was a drive for the place. Vignette stumbled at the start and had to be driven to get up at the head of the stretch, but finished strong. He was evidently the best. Stockholm quit in the last quarter. The Hnb was evidently short. He was well played. Can be tabbed. The Plutoerat was slow to begin and ran only a fair race. He is a bad horse.
Vignette, place, evens; show, 1 to 2. Tom Shannon, place, 8 to 5; show, 4 to 5. The Plutoerat, show, 1 to 2. The Hub, place, 3 to 5.

Winner—B. c. by Sayre—Stephanie.
Off at first break to a good start. Wou handily. No action of account behind. Moroni raced Protus into submission in three-quarters of a mile and won with plenty in reserve. Protus is a plodder and shows no great flesh of speed. Tinkler tired in the stretch after much use. The track evidently did not suit him. Henry Launt ran a fair race. He was used a bit too much. Brighton will do better over a fast track, but is a bad horse.
Scratched—(10576) Egbert, 112; 10647 Jack Martin, 104; 10575 Briggs, 104.

Winner—Ch. h. by Florentine—Close the Door.
Start good. Wou easily. Mistral II. outclassed his field and was well ridden and lucky. Wheel of Fortune ran a good race. She was poorly handled, closed stoutly and is evidently near to her best form. Watch. Roadrunner ran above the mark. He was cut off near the three-quarters. too. Claudiana had a lot of speed. She runs best at Oakland. Tab her for that. Charley Reiff closed strong and is improving. Ko Ko had more speed than figures show. A soft track suits Two Cheers best.
Wheel of Fortune, place, 1 to 2. Roadrunner, show, 5 to 1.

10664 SECOND RACE—1 1-4 Miles. Purse $400. 4-year-olds and upward. Handicap Over 5 Hurdles.

Winner—B. g. by St. Carlo—Royal Boss.
Start good. Wou easily. Our Climate won solely because of being a much better jumper than Ferrier. The latter lost so much ground at each obstacle that he could not make it up on the flat. Tortoni's race was up to his best form. Tom Smith was badly handled. In such a speedy race the others had no chance.
Scratched—10642 Rossmore, 120; 10616 Arundel, 130; 10642 Granger, 150.
Our Climate, place, 6 to 5. Tortoni, show, 7 to 5. Monita, place, 7 to 5.

10665 THIRD RACE—1 1-8 Miles. 3-year-olds and upward. The Evergreen Stakes. $1,500 Guaranteed. Heats.
